

2018 Camp Canopy Scholarship

Sponsored By Adams and Scioto Soil & Water Conservation Districts

And Southern Ohio Logger's Chapter

The Ohio Forestry Association's Forestry & Wildlife Conservation Camp, now called Camp Canopy is held June 10-15 at FFA Camp Muskingham in Carrollton, Ohio. The camp began in 1950. Since then, more than 10,000 high school students from all over Ohio have attended camp. Many of these students have furthered their interest in forestry and wildlife by obtaining post-secondary education in natural resources. Other campers have gained a greater understanding and appreciation of Ohio's forestry heritage.

This Scholarship will be awarded to one high school student from Adams County and one from Scioto County. Applications are due to the student's home county Conservation District Office by April 23, 2018. Camp information can be found at www.ohioforest.org (events tab – choose forestry camp).
